

LEADERSHIP – NOT JUST FOR BOSSES

You're invited...

Join us at The Annex City Hall to hear from our keynote speaker Rachael Robertson as she shares her past experiences in leadership and how we can all become better leaders within the workplace at every level.

Date: 8 October 2019

Time: 5.30pm to 7.30pm
(Registration 5.30pm commences at 6pm)

Free event | registration at the door | light refreshments

For more details please contact:
Toowoomba Regional Council
Health Safety and Wellbeing Unit on 131 872

Rachael Robertson

Rachael is a proven leader: having successfully led in the world's toughest workplace – Antarctica. She is recognised internationally for her thought-leadership on what great leadership actually looks like.

Rachael knows how to get the best out of teams. She will introduce and explain a set of powerful tools to build innovation, collaboration and respect. They are straightforward and memorable so you can use them immediately.

Rachael's story is one of an ordinary person doing extraordinary things. She has a unique ability to connect with all kinds of people and inspire with her story to help them to make the most of their lives.

